

Digital Designer

Clever is looking for a creative person with a love for design and technology. As a product designer at Clever, you will lead the application design efforts. Someone with the passion and skills at every step in the process, who can partner with engineering, product management, and other designers to help us craft an application that's a pleasure to see and use.

Clever is a rapidly growing software company with the goal to build the best chatbots and conversational interfaces. You will be working with a team of software developers and you'll have an immediate impact on the look & feel of our product and the customer experience.

What you'll do:

- You'll own the look & feel our user-facing application, our chatbot widgets and tools in line with the Clever branding.
- Collaborating closely with other designers, project managers, and engineers you'll rapidly build and iterate in an Agile, experiment-driven product development environment
- You'll spark joy to our customers by designing and implementing a professional look & feel with a good UX

Who you are:

- 3+ years experience and a solid portfolio with a history of interactive and impactful designs
- You have experience with HTML, CSS and Javascript
- You are passionate about the experience and equally compassionate about the user
- You have excellent prototyping and design tool knowledge and know how to balance design effort, speed and quality
- You pride yourself on capturing user feedback collection and and have excellent communication skills
- Organized, self-directed, efficient and able to handle multiple, complex projects

You may also know:

- Interaction design
- Experience with in-product marketing and delightful moment creation
- Persona building and communication
- Design systems

What we offer:

- A fun job with a competitive salary in a nice location
- A job where you have the opportunity to be creative and make an impact
- An environment where you have the liberty to decide how your workweek looks like
- 42 days of vacation because you deserve it

About Clever:

Clever is a fast growing scale-up in Ghent, consisting out of a team of 10 people: developers, conversational designers, marketeers and data scientists. We are based at the Foreestelaan, in the south of Ghent (UZ area), easy to access by car and close to the station in Ghent. We have a culture of respect, flexibility and responsibility, we aim to deliver delight our customers and our employees. Friday drinks, Wednesday soup and the occasional chocolate praline is an important part of this.
